perfect gift.

So why not stay home?

On Sunday, December 3, from noon to 6 p.m., Wellesley Square will host its annual Holiday Stroll, welcoming shoppers to experience all that Wellesley has to offer - plus a generous helping of added extras for good measure.

Wellesley Square's merchants represent a veritable what's-what of holiday gift options. From handbags to hobby horses, shoes to stationery, cosmetics to cheese, there is seemingly something for everyone on Central Street. And don't forget to make your way down Church and Washington Streets, too, where even more holiday treasures can be discovered.

In addition to the trove of shopping options, the Holiday Stroll will also boast a number of attractions that will make the day even more special. Sleigh rides, a tree lighting near the fire station from 5 to 6 p.m., pictures with Santa, ice sculptures, and visits with Frosty the Snowman and Rudolph are sure to delight the whole family.

The Holiday Stroll Scavenger Hunt will be back again, too, adding more fun to the day. Just pick up a scavenger hunt card and fill it with red snowflakes hidden in participating stores. Return your completed card for one of three chances at a gift basket valued at $1,000.

With free parking in the Wellesley Square area through the whole month of December, there's no reason to go elsewhere. Shop local. Walk local. The Wellesley Holiday Stroll has arrived.
